Nomination of Gardiner Tyler.

ner Tyler (a son of President John Tyler) for re-election to the United States House of Representatives from the Second (Norfolk) District of this State fulfils the expectations of the people and is a gratify ing commendation of his course in Con Virginia has never sent to Washington a more earnest worker than Mr. Tyler is, and with his experience in the Fifty-third Congress he will enter upon his new term trict. He is a good speaker, a good com mitteeman, a skilled lawyer, and is per sonally popular with his fellow-member and other persons of influence at Wash ington and throughout the country. The interests of the district are safe in his

Mr. Tyler's district is one the colored vote is we believe that it will be possible for us to divide that vote This done it but needs unanimity on the part of the whites to give Mr. Tyler the victory.

We hope that every Democratic commit tee in the district will now set to work to perfect our party organization unde the plan adopted by the last State Con rention. This is the first step and the most important step of all. Of course there will be public meetings for the discussion of the questions of the day and campaign literature will be sent to voter In large quantities, but we cannot hope 20 succeed without organization. With it

The Republicans are arranging to oper schools of instruction to inform their voters as to the workings of the new election law, and Democrats of the Secon District, and of all of the other district of the State, would do well to follow su't The better our voters understand the re quirements of the new law the better and quicker our votes can be polled on election day. Our friends of the Secon District have an energetic and capable leader in Mr. Tyler and they should, and we have no doubt they will, take pleasure in giving him an enthustastic sups perats have now made congres cional nominations in ail the districts of this State except the Fourth. Our cor vention in that district will be held at Petersburg on the 19th instant. Th pames mentioned in connection with the nomination are those of W. R. McKenney Esq., of Petersburg; Ex-Governor P. W. McKinney, of Farmville, and State-Sen ator Williams, of Mecklenburg. From this list we cannot but believe that there wil be chosen a leader who can be etected.

The Second and Fourth Districts are districts which need the help of the Democratic brethren of more favored sec tions of the State. In other words, these are the black districts of Virginia, wher the Democrats have always fought against fearful odds. And this they have generally done successfully, and we hope to see the experience repeated in our No-Nember election.

The Grand Army on the Rampage.

The resolutions of the Grand Army of the Republic, adopted day before yesterday, declare in effect that the Democrais are much too conscientious about passing on pension applications, and that those veterans would like to have the affairs of the Pension Office administered by such as lot of fellows as those who were in place when the list of pensioners was increased to its present enormous

The Grand Army of the Republic will never have its wish gratified. We think that the Democrats are going to keep in power for a long time to come; but if we are disappointed and they are ousted, the Republicans will never dare, after the exponures which have been made recently, to resume business at the Pension Office in the old fraudulently reckless way.

The time has passed when sworn officers of the government of these United States will feel bound to hand out a pension-certificate to every fellow who piled with the request, and among other nands it with the threat that if it isn't given the administration will be removed from power by the old soldiers' Thousands of the best of these oid soldiers now recognize the fact that many unworthy men have been admitted to the persion-list, and that that list is not such a roll of honor as it

The Grand Army's pension resolu tions were doubtless drawn by some wire-working Republican politician and ex-officeholder, whose sole purpose is to make campaign ammunition for his party. See how he managed to work in that misleading statement as to the vete rans of the Mexican war. This was done with the obvious purpose of making it appear that the Democrats are lavishly providing for southerners who served | neys. My back was so lame I could not raise they are almost starving to death the poor old Union veterans. The truth is that southern members of Congress have been excessively liberal in voting appropriations to Union oldiers. They have allowed themselve to forget old scores, and have usually ignored the fact that not all of the soldiers were unselfish patriots The records of the war show that plenty of northerners entered the Union army without motives of gain, while of others were induced to volunteer by offers of large hountles. These publies at one period ranged from to $1,000 per capita, and thousands demanded and received them as the price of enlisting. Now these bountypaid soldiers are more clamorously in to have the United States Treasury opened to them wider than it is. The United States have been prodigal in the payment of pensions to their soldiersnothing to equal it was ever known'

The Tariff and Silver.

Almost as soon as the bill to repeat the Sherman act of Congress became law, the cry was raised that that bil of itself could not accomplish the object which it was designed to accomplish

Disappointment followed success. So now it will be found that the new tariff law must be supplemented by financial legislation before it can effect the good expected of it-that is, all the good. That new law is already putting a new face upon business-matters, but something more is needed, we fear. The Washing ton Post, independent Republican, says on this subject:

"That the passage of a tariff bill wil be followed by a general resumption of activity in nearly all departments of busi-ness no well-informed person appears to doubt. Indeed, this is conceded by the strongest opponents of the measure that recently became a law. But there is a general and deeply grounded opinion that the conditions of permanent prosperity are not yet visible, and will not be apmonometallists, and the cause of monometallism in Europe is believed to morning.

Another tragedy has occurred in our midst. Tom Moses (white), it seems, went to the house of Gus Nidy (white), and stole the latter's wife and proceeded to the house of Mrs. Compton in the

Why anybody should oppose an inter-Why anybody should oppose an international bimetallic conference we cannot imagine. If there is even a remote probability that such a conference could settle the silver question and put the turned his battery on his unfaithful wife turned his battery on his unfaithful wife settle the silver question and put the whole financial world on a sound foundation, the experiment is well worth trying. No harm can result from such a confer Much good may possibly us assist in the good work of restoring Some few Republican leaders and most Democratic leaders in this country are

Veto or Stay Away.

The New York Tribune is endeavoring to convince its Democratic readers that they must either approve the new tariff from the polls

Our New York contemporary's arguent is based upon the assumption that this is in substance what Mr. Cleveland did when he declined to approve the new tariff. He "stayed away from the polls"did not cast the one vote which would have killed that measure. The Tribune quotes largely from the President's utterances; but fails to sustain its position The language of the President quoted by that paper was used by him in arguing against the Senate bill as compared with the Wilson bill, whereas when the Sen ate bill was presented to him for action bill and the McKinley law. And he has given excellent reasons why he con cluded to substitute the new law for the old one. He "stayed away from the polls," says the Tribune. So be it. The people will approve of his course. Under the operation of the law of evolution, the best tariff will be evolved in due time. "The fittest will survive," as the fittest has survived in the case before us,

The Courier-Journal says that the Hon Henry Cabot Lodge, of Massachusetts who has been devoting some attention to the history of political parties in the United States, concedes that the Demo-eratic party of to-day is the party of Thomas Jefferson, and says that the Whigs were wrong in denying that they were the successors of the Federalists. He also insists that the Republicans are in the line of succession from the Whigs. This is the true history, but it is rather surprising to learn that such history was needed in Massachusetts.

Senator Teller Threatens to Bolt. In the Republican State Convention held at Denver City last Wednesday, Mr. Teller was invited to speak. He com-

things said:
"I was present at the birth of the Republican party, and when it shall ally itself with the gold standard absolutely, I shall part with that party, not to go to the Populists, but to go to some other party which will insure the free coinage of silver."

That seems to be a hint that the Senator may become a Democrat.

The health of the body and life itself depend entirely on a suitable diet. people do not get enough food or live on an improper diet, sickness is the inevitable result. Proper nourishment is the secret of health and strength. The great lengths and odd bits of merchanquestion of health is, therefore, What is a proper diet? different ways, and yet each answer would be correct. In the tropics, it would be right to say that the proper diet for mankind is almost entirely vegetarianthat is, fruits, vegetables, and grains. But in America, which lies in the great temperate zone, a mixed diet is found to be the best. The healthlest people in this country live on meat foods, vegetables, and grains in suitable proportions. Such a diet is founded on reason and it This question might be answered in three Such a diet is founded on reason and it ought to be healthy. Theory and practice, however, do not always agree. There are thousands of shoppers. People who eat plenty of good food and yet remain weak, unnaturally thin, pale, and puny. They have no strength, and consequently and the strength of the stren are continually complaining of tired feel-ings. Their great trouble is that while they eat suitable food they do not get sufficient nourishment. They do not digest their food properly. So they keep thin and keep getting thinner. Lack of nourishment soon wears them out. It was formerly the custom to advise such people to take oils and fats, but persons with weak stomachs can no more digest cod-liver oil than they can digest fat pork. The effect of either is to make them dyspeptic and bilious. And that is why advanced physicians now refuse to prescribe cod-liver oil. Medicated wines and so-called stomach "bitters" are equally useless. They only inflame the lining of the stomach and give no nour-

The recognition of these great principles of diet and nourishment has led to one of diet and nourishment has led to one of the most brilliant discoveries of the present age. It has completely revolu-tionized the treatment of dyspepsia and emaciation, Instead of trying to cure indigestion with medicines and oily mix-tures, people are now finding out that the only way to get reliaf is by obtaining only way to get relief is by obtaining sufficient nourishment, and that this nourishment is speedily gained by taking Paskola, the artificially digested food. This great discovery has caused a de-cided rensation for some time past, and the fact that Paskola is becoming so wonderfully popular is the best proof that it has merit.
